Distribution Report

Press Release Title: Orange Flood Announces They Will Work with The Vienna Water Damage Alliance

Your Submitted Press Release:

This team of professionals strives to provide rapid response services during times of bad weather, reports OrangeFlood.com

Orange Flood and the Vienna Water

Damage Restoration Alliance announce they will be providing rapid response services to clients this winter, as it is highly anticipated that floods will strike the Northern Virginia, Maryland and Washington, DC area. The major water damage companies band together to prevent clients from having to wait long when dealing with flood waters. Regardless of which company the customer contacts, the water damage companies will share resources and select the provider with the fastest response team available, as this ensures all clients are helped in a timely manner.

"Clients find they sustain less water damage and less costly expenses when they work with this alliance, one which is covered by all insurance companies. The emergency response teams take on both commercial and residential projects and are equipped for large buildings and damages in multiple floors of towers and apartments. Customers know they are in good hands when they choose to work with the alliance and that their problem will be resolved in the shortest time possible," Ari Shaw, spokesperson for Orange Flood, announces.

When a building sustains Flood Damage in

Maryland, Northern Virginia or Washington, DC, certain steps need to be taken immediately. The water must be extracted and any damage cleaned up and then the structure needs to be evaluated for any mold or growth. Next, the structure must be thoroughly dried and dehumidified to ensure all water is moisture is removed. Next, the cleaning and deodorizing process begins, which thankfully is one of the easier steps of this process. Finally, post-loss construction needs to take place.

"The Vienna Water Damage Restoration Alliance ensures all of these steps are completed with each project they take on. If even one step is missed, the project isn't finished and the client may experience problems later on down the road. This is unacceptable, as water damage can result in structural damage or lead to mold growth, a problem which may affect the health of building occupants. Never rely on a discount provider when help is available through our alliance. We ensure the job is done right the first time," Shaw declares.

The average flood claim comes in at around $40,000. Building and home owners lacking flood insurance find they are responsible for the entire cost and this is only the monetary impact. The emotional damage can take a toll on building owners and occupants and a flood may result in the loss of life. For this reason, prevention remains the best remedy. However, in the event steps have been taken to prevent water damage, yet it still occurs, seek professional help.

"The alliance is committed to providing the fastest response time when it comes to Vienna Flood Damage, understanding how critical it is to resolve the water damage promptly. Don't hesitate to call on us in your time of need. We will find a team that can be there quickly to help you move past this crisis and continue on with life," Shaw states.

About Orange Flood:

Orange Flood is a member of the Vienna Water Damage Restoration Alliance, an organization committed to providing service 24 hours a day, seven days a week to those facing water, flood and fire damage. The alliance takes on projects, regardless of how large or small they are.
